Absolutely no information can be given over the telephone regarding any Vital Record.

Marriage Certificates:

Vital Records are not considered public information, nor are they subject to the Freedom of Information Act.

Under Illinois State Law (410 ILCS 535-Vital Records Act) only specific individuals have legal access to birth, death, or marriage certificates. The Woodford County Clerk's Office will issue certificates to authorized individuals only. Certain restrictions apply to whom may obtain a certified copy of a Marriage Certificate.

- The front of Marriage Certificate is unrestricted & can be given out certified to anyone requesting the record.
- Only the persons named on the certificate (bride/groom) may receive certified copies which contain both the front and the back of the Marriage Certificate.
- After 50 years the back of the Marriage Certificate can be given out for Genealogy and will be stamped 'For Genealogy Purposes Only'.

The earliest Marriage Records available in Woodford County are from 1877. Please note vital record information was not required to be filed prior to 1916.

If you were not married in Woodford County, please contact the County in which your marriage ceremony occurred.

Marriage Certificates can be requested in person, through the mail, or online.
